

HSBC TRAVEL INSURANCE POLICY WORDING

1. INTRODUCTION

This Policy is issued by HSBC Life (International) Limited (referred to as "the Company", "we", "us" or "our"

This document contains the terms and conditions of your HSBC Travel Insurance.

2. MEDICAL AND EMERGENCY EVACUATION COVERAGE

If you suffer a Bodily Injury or unexpected Sickness during a Covered Journey, we will pay the Usual, Customary and Reasonable amount for the actual services rendered by the health care provider.

Maximum Benefit Limit: USD 500,000.

3. SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR CROSS-BORDER RESCUE (E.G., ALPS OR REMOTE AREAS)

If you require immediate medical evacuation from a remote or mountainous area (including but not limited to

Coverage is subject to the following:

- The rescue must be deemed Medically Necessary by a registered medical practitioner.
- Non-standard or private clinics used during the emergency transport are considered part of our "Emergency Services".
- Any subrogation rights regarding multi-jurisdictional rescue operations (e.g., between France and Switzerland) shall be governed by the laws of the country of the insured.

4. EXCLUSIONS

We will not pay any claims arising directly or indirectly from:

- Pre-existing medical conditions not declared and accepted by us.
- Professional sports or extreme sports undertaken against local safety warnings.
- Traveling against the advice of a medical practitioner.

5. CLAIMS PROCEDURE

In the event of a claim, you must notify us within 30 days of the incident and provide all necessary medical

